

PRIVACY POLICY

TBT Engineering Limited respects your privacy and does not sell, rent or loan any identifiable information collected on this site. Any information that you give will be treated in a careful and secure manner. It will not be used in ways to which you have not consented.

This statement explains how we may collect and use information about you through our website. If you have any questions about our privacy policies, want to exercise your right to see a copy of the information that we hold about you or think that information we hold about you may need to be corrected, please send an e-mail to our Assistant Business Manager, Jeff Halvorsen (jhalvorsen@tbte.ca).

We do not seek to identify individual visitors unless they volunteer their contact details through one of the forms on the site. Various forms on our site invite you to submit your contact details and other information about yourself or your organization, or to send us emails which may, of course, also identify you. In each case, the purpose for which you are invited to give us information is clear and we also indicate which of the requested information is essential for the relevant purpose and which is optional – fields for essential information are marked with an asterisk. We will only use your details to send you information from TBT Engineering Limited that you have specifically requested to receive. We will not use your information for purposes that are not clear when you provide your details, and will not disclose it outside TBT Engineering Limited, except in very limited circumstances and only with your agreement or where we are legally obliged to do so.

We may use 'cookies' to monitor how people use our site. This helps us to understand how our customers and potential customers use our website so we can improve and manage our site. We do not use them to advertising or any other promotional purposes.

TBT Engineering Limited takes all reasonable security measures to protect personal information from loss, unauthorized access, destruction, misuse, modification or disclosure. As far as permissible under law, TBT Engineering Limited accepts no responsibility for the unauthorized access of personal information held by TBT Engineering Limited.

This website contains links to third-party websites. Before disclosing your personal information on any other website, we advise you to examine the privacy statements of those websites. TBT Engineering Limited takes no responsibility for the privacy practices or the content of any websites other than this one.

The content of our privacy policies may be updated from time to time, so we suggest that you return to the website on a regular basis and carefully read the information provided.
